REFLECTION QUESTIONS

When you look at current world events and turmoil, what anxieties surface in your heart? How does the certainty of Christ's ultimate victory speak to those specific fears?

What would it look like practically for you to invest more in eternal realities than in the temporary political or cultural powers of this age? Should Christians even worry about culture and politics? Why or why not?

When you face hardship or persecution for your faith, how does the promise of future glory with Christ help you endure? Can you share a specific example?

What does it mean for believers to one day share in Christ's reign? How should this future hope shape your character and choices now?

How can our community of faith demonstrate now what it will look like when God's kingdom fully comes and His authority is completely established?
