REFLECTION QUESTIONS

What are the promises God has given us as Christians? How have you seen God's faithfulness in your own life?

How often do you confess your sin to God? Why is acknowledging our sin so important in prayer?

If God answered your prayers exactly as you're praying them right now, whose glory would be most visible — yours or His?

Where in your life do you need to stop striving and start trusting that God's redemptive plan is still unfolding?

What does resting in the promises of God look like? How do God's promises give us hope even in the darkest of circumstances?
