REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Pride Ruins Us

Where do you catch yourself saying—out loud or in your heart—“Look what I built”? (Think: career, parenting, reputation, even ministry.)

How has pride made you act “less human”—driven by appetite, anxiety, or comparison instead of peace and trust?

Humility Positions Us

Nebuchadnezzar ignored God’s warning for twelve months. Where in your life might you be ignoring God’s nudges or delaying obedience?

What is one area this week where you need to consciously “lift your eyes to heaven” instead of looking inward or downward?

Christ Transforms Us

How does it change your outlook to know that while the words were still in Nebuchadnezzar’s mouth judgment came, but while the nails were still in Jesus’ hands salvation was secured?

What would it look like, very practically, for you to lay down your “crown” (control, self-reliance, ego) at the feet of Christ this week?
