Reflection Questions

How have I been responding to God's call in my life?

Consider whether your actions align with your intentions and how your response to God's call is impacting your daily life and spiritual journey.

Am I living out true repentance, or am I stuck in empty words and promises?

Reflect on areas where you may have said the right things but failed to follow through with actions that demonstrate genuine repentance and obedience to God.

What are the barriers that are holding me back from fully surrendering to God's call?

Identify any pride, fear, or shame that might be preventing you from embracing the life that God is calling you to, and think about steps you can take to overcome these obstacles.

In what ways can I more fully embrace the truth that God welcomes me regardless of my condition?

Meditate on the unconditional love and grace of God, and consider how you can live in the freedom and acceptance He offers, regardless of your past or present struggles.
