Christians should have the _____
to _____ all things for Christ.

In Christ, the _____ poor are _____ rich.

In Christ, we're _____ who receive a
_____.

In Christ, we see One who _____, _____,
and _____.

Reflection Questions

Why should we be willing to suffer for the sake of Christ? Why would I want to be a Christian if it's going to be hard?

Can we just be a Christian in secret and pretend like we're not? Why or why not?

How can someone be poor and rich at the same time? How are the Smyrnaens rich?

What does Jesus promise to those who follow Him, even to the point of death?

What gives us more faith, confidence, and assurance amid our trials and suffering?
