Christ is Enough to Save

Colossians 2:1-15

Life Group Discussion Questions

1. Worldly wisdom is like “yeast” or “a bit of poison.” What are some examples of false teachings that, even when seemingly minor, have a major impact on our faith? How far can these “changes in navigation” put us off course?

2. What does being “knit together in love” look like in your daily walk in Christ with your brothers and sisters?

3. Have you ever been temporarily convinced by a “reasonable” false teaching? Where did you first hear it? And what did you do after hearing it?

4. Why is the belief that there is a “spiritual elite” so dangerous? How does this damage our unity in Christ?

5. Sometimes, God feels distant from us. However, by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, God is always present with true believers. Is this an encouragement to you? And if so, how can you use this truth to encourage others who feel like God is distant from them?

6. Have you experienced freedom from the “slavery” of worldly wisdom through the work of Christ? How have you seen the fruit (results) of this in your life?

7. What is Christ’s finished work? And what does it look like for us to trust in it?
