

Exodus 15:1-21 The First Song of Praise to the Warrior Lord

October 18, 2026- Cornerstone Church Bible Study Small Group Questions

1. Read through Exodus 15:1-21. Why is it significant that Moses and the people of Israel respond in song in light of the previous passage?
2. In what ways does that the text describes the Lord? How do these descriptions impact our own response to the Lord?
3. Why is it significant that the nations heard about this event in v.15-16?
4. How does Israel's singing about God's redemption relate to our singing about God's redeeming work in Jesus Christ?
5. Why is music so impactful to the way we think? What does this text tell us about the place of music among the people of God?
6. Is there a place for singing in your own family or personal discipleship? What are ways you can better use singing in discipleship and in your family?

Spend some time praying for each other's struggles and then some time praising God for His goodness and for the Lord Jesus Christ the promised King who came, lived, died on the cross for forgiveness of our sins. Jesus Christ rose again and ascended to heaven where he sits on the throne and from where He will return and come again to judge the living and the dead. Who will by His power restore all creation, to the glory of God the Father. He lives to intercede for His own and saves to the uttermost as Hebrews puts it. Pray for more Spirit-wrought faithfulness and boldness to proclaim the good news of God's grace and mercy in Jesus Christ and for more faithful gospel preaching churches unashamed of the gospel of Christ to rise up. Pray the Lord of the Harvest would raise up many workers (Matthew 9:38) to take the Gospel to the nations and call sinners to repent of their sin and look to Jesus Christ for salvation, eternal life and lasting hope. Soli Deo Gloria!
